

Help for domestic abuse in Camden

We want you to live safely and happily

Domestic abuse

Domestic abuse is when someone you know hurts or controls you – this can happen between

- partners or ex-partners

- or family members

The types of domestic abuse are

Coercive control

When someone makes you feel scared, controls your money, or stops you from seeing friends and family

Financial abuse

Taking or controlling your money

Psychological or emotional abuse

Making you feel bad or scared

Physical abuse

Hurting your body

Sexual abuse

Forcing you to do sexual things

Online abuse

Using technology to hurt you

Honour-based abuse

Hurting you to protect the reputation of your family or your community

Female genital mutilation (FGM)

Cutting or hurting female private parts

Forced marriage

Making you marry someone you don't want to marry

Getting help

If it is an emergency, call the police on 999

If it is not an emergency, call 101

Camden Safety Net (CSN)

CSN helps anyone in Camden who is abused – they help with

- how to stay safe

- emotional support

- getting legal help to keep you safe

- housing and children's services

- advice on benefits

- mental health

- education, training and jobs

You can call CSN on

020 79 74 25 26

Or you can email them at camdensafetynet@camden.gov.uk

CSN is open from

9am to 5pm

Monday to Friday

When CSN is closed, you can call the National Domestic Abuse Helpline on

0808 2000 247

Housing support

If you feel unsafe at home, we can help

The help we give you will depend on what you need and your rights – this can be

- making your home safer with extra locks or stronger doors

- giving advice

- signposting you to specialist support

- helping you find emergency housing

- helping you find somewhere safe to live

To get housing support

- if you are a Camden council tenant, contact your neighbourhood housing officer

- if you are not a Camden council tenant, fill out the homelessness application form at

Homelessness application form

rcforms01.camden.gov.uk/homelessrefcam

You can also call us on

020 79 74 44 44

Or visit our office at

5 Pancras Square, King's Cross
London, N1C 4AG

Safe contact

Make sure you are in a safe place when you contact us - use a safe phone or computer

Tell us how and when it is safe to contact you

Translation and interpreting

We can arrange an interpreter and translate documents to help you

What Happens Next

Once you have asked for housing help, a housing advisor will contact you within 10 days

If it is urgent, we will be in touch sooner

The advisor will talk to you about your needs and what to do next